ANNAH ELIAS, WHO WAS QUESTIONED BY JEROME ABOUT HER RELATIONS WITH SLAYER OF A. H. GREEN. HOLD-UP, HINTS JEROME, AS HE SEES MRS. ELIAS

District-Attorney Declares He Has Heard Reports That a Claim Is to Be Made Upon the Estate of Andrew H. Green by Woman Mentioned by His Slayer.

GOES WITH AN ASSISTANT TO HER HOME TO GET A STATEMENT.

Crowd in Church at the Funeral of Mr. Green to Pay Last Tribute---Slayer Is Arraigned in Court and Abandons the Plea of Insanity.

District - Attorney Jerome received reports this afternoon which prompted him to accompany Assistant District-Attorney Appleton and a stenographer to the palatial residence of Bessie Davis, or Hannah Elias, whose name was mentioned by Cornelius Williams after he had murdered Andrew H. Green. She now lives at No. 236 Central Park West. Mr. Jerome said he would secure a statement from the handsome mulatto in the presence of her attorney, and that then he would be able to determine if Mr. Green was the victim of mistaken identity.

The reports which induced District-Attorney Jerome to hurry in person to Mrs. Elias's house intimated that the relatives of Mr. Green had been given reason to fear that she or her representatives would endeavor Killed in Glendale Post-Office, to have the estate of Mr. Green contribute to her support.

Word reached the District-Attorney's office this afternoon that a claim had been prepared and would be submitted when the will of the murdered Mr. Jerome at the same time heard that the estates of other well-known men had been involved in the past by representatives of a colored Attorney Nanz, who represents Mrs. Elias, reported that she was too ill to go to the District-Attorney's office. She was in bed at the time, being man-servant when Mr. Jerome arrived. "I am convinced," said the District-Attorney before going to the ho that Mr. Green never heard of this Davis or Elias woman. But in order to get at the bottom facts and in order to establish, if possible, what Williams's motive may have been in killing Mr. Green, I am anxious to get a statement from this woman.

COMPLAINS OF DETECTIVES.

unable to leave her home, but he is willing that she be examined by one of my assistants. Mr. Nanz came eto my office to complain of the number of detectives who were besieging Mrs. Elias's home. Some of them, he claimed, tried to force their way in. I told him if they attempted that they would be exceeding their authority.

"In view of the fact that Williams mentioned this woman as having furnished the motive for his crime, it is absolutely necessary that she should be examined closely, although I am sure from what I have already learned in the investigation of this case that her statement will absolutely clear Mr. Green's reputation." Investigation of the vital statistics of the Board of Health lends addi-

ional mystery to the parentage of the Elias baby, and consequently adds

little more conjecture to the filial relations of Bessie Davis or Hannah

Birth certificate No. 42,713 says that "Gwendolyn Elias, daughter of John Platt and Hannah Elias, was born Oct. 15, 1902, at No. 236 Central Park West. Nativity, colored. Attended by Dr. A. H. Robinson, No. 248

Death certificate No. 13,016 reads that "Gwendolyn Elias, daughter of William Elias, of Pittsburg, Pa., and of Hannah Elias, died at No. 236 Central Park West on April 25, 1903, of bronchial pneumonia. Nativity. colored. Attended by Dr. A. H. Robinson, of No. 248 West Forty-second

In the birth certificate John Platt is mentioned as the father. In the death certificate William Elias is said to be the father.

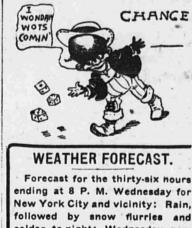

CHANGED NAME ON CERTIFICATE.

Dr. Robinson, who has moved to No. 159 West Forty-ninth street, said Street, but Failed to Kill His to-day that after he had filed the certificate of the death of the child Mrs. Clias had asked him to change on it the name of the father he had given. He said he had done so, but professed his inability to remember what name had first been given him or to what he had changed it. He said that he had gone to the Health Department and had changed the name on the books "Did you think it strange that two names would be given in the birth and death certificates for such a child?"

"If I did think so I knew it was none of my business to ask questions." The doctor said he had been attending Hannah Elias for more than two years and that in that time she had been far from well. He knew nothing there was an argument in favor of the weapon. One of the shots took effect about her or her callers. He never saw a caller at the house, all others and invalved the distribution of the shots took effect about her or her callers.
